SCHEME OF DELEGATION

GENERAL

By this scheme East Worlington Parish Council [“the Council”] delegates functions and where required by law cedes the same to officers.

By this scheme of delegation, the Council in pursuance of its powers under section 101 of the LGA 1972 [Local Government Act 1972] and in pursuance of its powers under section 15 of the LGA 2000 [Local Government Act 2000] to the extent of their respective powers delegate the functions referred to in this scheme to be discharged by bodies or persons and subject to the limitations hereinafter contained.

The scheme delegates powers and duties within broad functional descriptions and includes powers and duties under all legislation present and future within those descriptions and all powers and duties including those relating to the employment of staff incidental to that legislation.

The scheme operates under sections 101, 151 and 270 of the LGA 1972 [“Local Government Act 1972”]. Section 15 of the LGA 2000 [“Local Government Act 2000”] and all other powers enabling the Council and for the avoidance of doubt any reference to the Council shall be deemed to be a reference to the committee where the function falls to be discharged by the committee.

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this scheme a function of the Council means any activity that the Council may lawfully perform under statute or common law.

OVERALL LIMITATIONS

Any exercise of responsibility for functions or delegated powers shall comply with:

- a. Any statutory restrictions
- b. The Councils Standing Orders
- c. The Councils Policies, Procedures and Governance Documents approved by the Council.
- d. The current year budgets
- e. The Councillors Code of Conduct
- f. The Code of Practice on local Authority Publicity.
- g. Agreed arrangements for recording decisions.
- h. Financial Regulations.

The scheme does not delegate any matter: Reserved by law or which by law may not be delegated to a Councillor and /or Officer.

DELEGATION OF POWERS

In an emergency and/or Council meeting suspended/inquorate, the council delegate all statutory powers and functions (except those prohibited under LGA 1972 s.101) to the Proper Officer until normal council service is resumed

Decisions cannot be delegated to individual Councillors.

A Court can set aside any decisions made by a body or person not having the power to make them.

Local Councils may only do what legislation requires or permits them to do. With some exceptions, the Council may delegate some functions to Officers or other Local Authorities.

The aim of this document is to clarify the way East Worlington Parish Council has delegated its powers and the authority to spend.
