BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

1.11EO.23 Welcome

The Chair opened the meeting and welcomed councillors and members of the public. It was agreed that Cllr Bell would take the Minutes of the meeting and that no audio recording was being taken.

2.11EO.23 Apologies for Absence - Apologies received from the Clerk.

3.11EO.23 Declarations of Interest

Cllr Hurst-Bannister advised that the boundary of his property bordered the property whose planning applications were the subject of this extraordinary parish council meeting, albeit the boundaries of the properties are separated by the highway. It was noted that Cllr Hurst-Bannister had not been identified as a 'neighbour' for planning consultation purposes by North Devon District Council. Therefore, the Chair noted Cllr Hurst-Bannister's comments but felt that it did not constitute a conflict of interest.

4.11EO.23 Public Speaking Time

Both members of the public in attendance spoke briefly in support of planning applications 77698 and 77699.

5.11EO.23 Planning Matters

a) New applications:

- i. Planning application: 77698 - Council Services \(northdevon.gov.uk\) Full planning application.
- ii. Planning application: 77699 - Council Services \(northdevon.gov.uk\) Listed Building Consent.

The Chair enquired whether any Cllrs had any concerns regarding the planning applications listed above. None of the Cllrs present indicated they had any concerns they wished to raise regarding the proposals. Cllr Bell proposed that he respond on behalf of EWPC, in the absence of the Clerk, to the planning consultations expressing its support, seconded Cllr Good. All in favour – Motion Carried. \(RR2023/032\)

There being no further business to discuss, the Chair closed the meeting.
